DESIGN INSPIRATION

Originally introduced in 1999 as a hand-printed fabric that continues to sell today, Edwin's Covey features a family of quails enjoying a quiet moment amidst a verdant patch of land. Delicate line work lends depth to the feathers and leaves, while the pattern's half-drop layout creates a gentle rhythm. Embedded in the name of the design is a nugget of company history: "Edwin" refers to Edwin Bitter, husband of Adrianna Bitter, daughter of Franco and Flora Scalamandré.
